Top golf courses local to Augusta National

Augusta Country Club - sharing a fence, a creek and a valley with Augusta National, this recently re-mastered Donald Ross course features 6,771 yards of golf from the longest tees for a par of 72.

Champions Retreat -the course brings together three of the greatest names in the game - Jack Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer, and Gary Player. Combined with world class facilities, this course provides guests a truly unique experience not easily found in the Augusta area.

The River Club - combines a fantastic layout with a spectacular setting to create a golfer's paradise. Designed by acclaimed golf architect, Jim Fazio, the course features 6,847 yards of golf from the longest tees for a par of 71.

West Lake Country Club - voted #1 private golf course in the Augusta area on numerous occasions, this 18 hole course features Tifeagle greens and water hazards on seven holes. The course boasts 6,857 yards of play with a course rating of 73.4 and slope of 138.

Woodside Plantation Country Club - this private and gated golf course boasts two Championship courses designed by Rees Jones and Bob Cupp. It covers more than 2,900 acres of beautifully rolling countryside in the historic city of Aiken, SC.

Mount Vintage Plantation Golf Club - a 27-hole championship golf course which has been likened to the Augusta National by Golf Magazine. It is challenging for the most serious golfer and breathtakingly beautiful.
